December President's Message

Two weeks ago, Ev organized a Snowseeker bowling afternoon in Lake Zurich. Nine of us attended to play four games, and have pizza and soda. It seemed that Ron, Al, Darwin and Fred were pretty good at getting those strikes. By the fourth game we all were improving. It was a good time, and everyone seemed to enjoy bowling and would like to do the outing again sometime. Thanks Ev for arranging the activity.

I have ordered 12 samples of the first aid kits for us to sell. I hope to have them available for the December meeting. As you might recall, any profits that we make will be donated to either the blind and disabled ski program, or the wounded warrior ski program. An anonymous club member has offered to match our sales up to $100.00 as an incentive to do this project. What a kind and thoughtful act!

The Christmas party is December 3rd. I am looking forward to seeing everyone at Lamb's Farm for the dinner, the gift exchange and Toys-for-Tots donations. This is a fun evening with lots of laughs. I hope that we will have a good turn out. The more the merrier.

Devil's Head winners

A free Devils Head trip was raffled off from entries collected at our booth at the Windy City Ski Show. The winners are Ward & Ann Aldrich of Libertyville.

Snowseekers Bowling

Riddle- I'm looking for a word that can be a verb or a noun. It has an "l" in it. It is a good thing to have this most of the time. It needs to be used a lot when skiing.,
The first person to email me this word gets a free dinner. One guess per person. Answer and winner announced at next meeting. (winner need not be present). Please put the word "contest" in the email subject line. You can reply to corsec@snowseekers.org.
